

Approval by Congregation

In October, the ICM Board of Directors voted by an overwhelming majority to enter into negotiations to renew our rabbi's contract. A special congregational meeting was held on November 20 to affirm the board's decision. We are very pleased to report that the congregation voted by a vast majority to approve the board's decision. We look forward to working together with each and every one of you to make the congregation stronger and more vibrant than ever before.

However, neither of the men can pursue the relationship due to their religious beliefs: the priest cannot break his vow of celibacy and the rabbi cannot marry a non-Jew. Keeping the Faith is Ed Norton's directorial debut and works on several levels, including a loving look at relationships and the common ground that Judaism and Catholicism share in showing

Ma'aser Sheni

When the Temple functioned in Jerusalem, the Jewish community supported it and its priests with a system of tithes in the form of food and/or money. Today we feed our communal needs by offering financial gifts that strengthen and enhance Jewish religious and communal life in the Northshire.
